Art. 28. (1) Each application for access to public information shall be considered within the shortest possible time, but not later than 14 days as of date of registration.
(2) Within the time period set in par. 1, the body, or person explicitly authorized by them, shall decide on whether to grant or deny access to public information and shall notify in writing the applicant of the decision.

Specification of the application for access

Art. 29. (1) Where it is not clear what information is being requested or it is too broadly defined, the applicant shall be advised accordingly and shall be provided an opportunity to specify the requested information. The time period set in the preceding article shall start running as of the date when the requested public information was specified.
(2) If the applicant failed to specify the requested public information within a period of 30 days, the application shall not be considered.

Permissible extension of the term for granting of access

Art. 30. (1) The time period set in art. 28, par. 1 may be extended with no more than 10 days, where the requested information as specified in the application is substantial in volume and additional time for its preparation is needed.
(2) The notification under art. 29, par. 1 should state the reasons for the extension of the term in which the access to the public information shall be granted.

Extension of the term for reasons of protection of third parties' interests

Art. 31. (1) The time period set in art. 28, par. 1 may be extended with not more than 14 days also where the requested information is a matter of concern to a third party and his/her consent is needed for its disclosure.
(2) In the cases under sub.art. 1, the respective body shall seek the explicit written consent of the third party within 7 days as from the registration of the application under art. 24.
(3) When it takes the decision under art. 28, par. 2, the respective body shall be obliged to comply strictly with the conditions under which the third party has consented to the disclosure of the information that concerns him/her.
(4) (Amended, SG No. 104/2008; Amended – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) When within the period under par. 1 the third party expressly refuses to give his/her consent, the respective body shall disclose the requested public information in scope and in a manner so as not to disclose the information concerning the third party.
(5) (Amended, SG No. 104/2008) The consent of the third party is not required when it is a responsible person and the information concerned is a public information under this act, as well as in case there is overriding public interest in its disclosure.

Re-allocation of the application for access

Art. 32. (1) When the body does not have the requested information, but is aware of its location, it shall re-sent the application within 14 days as of receipt of the application and shall notify the applicant of the re-sending. The notification must always specify the name and the address of the respective agency or legal entity.
(2) In the case described in par. 1, the time period set in art. 28, par. 1, shall start running as of the receipt of the re-sent application.

Notification of unavailability of the requested public information

Art. 33. If the body does not have the requested information and is not aware of its location, it shall notify the applicant accordingly within 14 days.

Decision to grant access to public information

Art. 34. (1) The decision under art. 28, par. 2, by which access to public information is granted must state:
1. the degree of the ensured access to the requested public information;
2. the time within which access to the requested public information is available;
3. the location where the requested information will be disclosed;
4. the form in which access to the requested public information will be granted;
5. the costs for granting access to the requested public information.
(2) The decision may also state other bodies, organizations and persons who have more complete information available.
(3) (Amended – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) The decision to grant access to the requested public information shall be handed over to the applicant against his/her signature or sent by registered mail or sent by e-mail, when the applicant has requested that the information be provided by e-mail and has indicated an e-mail address.
(4) The time period described in par. 1, item 2 may not be less than 30 days as of receipt of the decision.

Granting of access to the requested public information

Art. 35. (1) Access to public information shall be granted after payment of the specified costs and after presentation of document evidencing their payment.
(2) A record shall be drawn upon provision of access to public information, which shall be signed by the applicant and the relevant civil servant.

(3) (New – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) When the applicant has requested that the information be provided by e-mail and has indicated an e-mail address for the receipt, the body shall send to the indicated e-mail address the decision for granting of access along with a copy of the information or with the Internet address where the data are stored. In these cases the record under par. 2 shall not be drawn and expenses for providing access shall not be paid.

(4) (New – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) If the applicant has changed the e-mail address without notifying the obliged body or has indicated an incorrect or a non-existent address, the information shall be considered received on the date of its sending.

Refusal of the applicant of the granted access

Art. 36. (1) (Previous text of art. 36 – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) If within the time specified in art. 34, par. 4 the applicant fails to appear or to pay the required costs, either of his failures shall be considered a refusal of the granted right of access to public information.

(2) (New – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) Paragraph 1 shall not apply when the application is submitted via the platform for access to public information or electronically.
Section III

(2) In the cases described in par. 1, access to public information shall be provided in accordance with the procedure set forth in this act.
(3) Upon appeal of refusal to grant access to public information on the grounds of art. 37, par. 1, item 1, the court may, in closed hearing, request from the body the necessary evidences.
(4) (Amended, SG No. 45/2002) In cases under par. 3 the court shall decide on the lawfulness of the refusal and on the marking of the information as classified.
Chapter Four
Procedure for Re-use of Public Sector Information
(New – SG No. 49/2007)

Section I

Provision of public sector information for re-use
(New, SG No. 49/2007)

Conditions for the provision of public sector information for re-use

Art. 41a (New, SG No. 49/2007; Amended – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016)
(1) Public sector information shall be provided in a format and language in which it has been collected, respectively created, or in another format at the discretion of the public sector organization and in open, machine-readable format along with the respective metadata. The provision of the data in open machine-readable format shall be carried out in accordance with the objectives under art. 15b. The format and metadata in these cases shall comply with the official open standards.

(2) (Amended – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) Public sector organizations shall not be obliged to provide information for re-use if the provision requires the creation, or adaptation of that information, or if it is related to the provision of parts of documents or other materials, which would require disproportionate efforts beyond the usual operation/procedure.

(3) Public sector organizations shall not be obliged to continue the creation or collection of certain type of information for its re-use.

(4) (Amended – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) At an applicant’s request and at given the possibility for that, the requested information shall be provided electronically at a specified electronic address or by other proper means of provision in an electronic form.

(5) (New – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) With the ordinance under art. 15d, par. 3 shall be determined the standard conditions for re-use of public sector information in open format, for commercial or non-commercial purposes. These conditions shall not unnecessarily restrict possibilities for re-use and shall not be used to restrict competition.

(6) (New – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) Public sector organizations shall provide information for re-use without conditions or may impose conditions within the standard conditions determined by the ordinance under art. 15d, par. 3.

(7) (New – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) Information, being object to intellectual property rights, in which libraries, including university libraries, museums and archives hold rights of use, shall be provided for re-use, if such re-use is authorized by the rightholder.

(8) (New – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) Re-use of information from archives – documents from the National Archival Fonds, shall be carried out under the conditions and procedures under Chapter Six of the Law on the National Archival Fonds and under this act.

7. (new – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) containing production or trade secret or professional secret according to a law;

8. (new – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) for the obtaining of which the applicant should prove a legal interest according to a law;

9. (new – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) which is parts of documents containing only logos, crests and insignia;

10. (new – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) containing personal data the re-use of which amounts to an inadmissible access and inadmissible processing according to the Personal Data Protection Act.

(2) (New – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) In the cases under par. 1 for re-use shall be provided only this part of the information to which access is not restricted.
(3) (New – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) When the public interest overrides the public sector organization shall provide for re-use information containing production or trade secret.

(4) (New – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) In the cases under par. 3 the public sector organization may prohibit the re-use for commercial purposes or in a way which could lead to unfair competition or otherwise restrict competition within the meaning of Title Two of the Protection of Competition Act.

Provision of public sector information to public sector organizations

Art. 41c (New, SG No. 49/2007) (1) Public sector information shall be provided for re-use to public sector organizations as well, under the conditions and the procedure set forth by this act.

(2) If public sector information is requested for re-use by an organization under the provision of par. 1 in terms of the fulfillment of activities, which fall outside its power and functions, the same conditions and fees shall apply.

Facilitating the search for information

Art. 41d (New, SG No. 49/2007; Amended – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) Public sector organizations shall provide conditions for easier search for public sector information by maintaining and publishing lists of main documents and the respective metadata through various mechanisms for online access and in machine-readable format, or other appropriate means. Where possible public sector organizations shall provide conditions for the cross-linguistic search for documents.

Prohibition for provision of an exclusive right of re-use

Art 41e (New, SG No. 49/2007) (1) Signing contracts for exclusive provision of public sector information is prohibited.

(2) Signing contracts under par 1 is permissible only in the cases when the provision of services of public interest may not be fulfilled in a different way/by other means. The grounds for signing such a contracts shall be reviewed every third year by the public sector organization which is a party in the contract.

(3) (New – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) The conclusion of a contract under par. 1 shall be admissible when the provision of the exclusive right relates to digitization of cultural resources, where the period of implementation of the contract shall not exceed 10 years, and if exceptionally it exceeds 10 years, the duration of the contract shall be reviewed during the 11th year after its entry into force and every seven years thereafter.

(4) (New – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) The stipulations of the contract under par. 3 related to the provision of exclusive rights shall be made public. The public sector organizations shall provide data on the manner and the criteria by which has been determined the contractor under this contract.

(5) (New – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) The contract under par. 3 shall include the right for the public sector body to obtain free of charge a copy of the digitised cultural resources.

(6) (New – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) After the end of the use of the exclusive rights under the contract under par. 3 the copy under par. 5 shall be available for re-use.

Section II
Procedure for Granting Public Sector Information for Re-use

(New, SG No. 49/2007)

Request for re-use of public sector information

Art. 41f (New, SG No. 49/2007) (1) (Amended – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) Public sector information shall be provided for re-use after the submission of a written request. The request shall be deemed written in cases where it is sent electronically to the e–mail address under art. 15, par. 1, item 4 or on the portal under art. 15d.
(2) If the request is submitted electronically, public sector organizations shall be obliged to respond electronically as well. In such cases, no receipt confirmation is required.

Payment/Fees

Art. 41g (New, SG No. 49/2007; Amended – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) (1) Access to public sector information for re-use shall be granted free of charge or after payment of a fee which shall be limited to the marginal costs incurred for their reproduction and provision of the information.
(2) The principle for determining the fee according to par. 1 shall not apply to the fees collected:

1. by public sector organization which under the act assigning the public task are required to generate revenue to cover a substantial part of their costs relating to the performance of their public tasks; the requirement for generating revenue shall be determined in advance and shall be published electronically;

2. for the re-use of public sector information for which the public sector organization concerned is required to generate sufficient revenue to cover a substantial part of the costs relating to the collection, production, reproduction and dissemination of the information, under a law or the common administrative practice; the requirement shall be determined in advance and shall be published electronically;

3. by libraries, including university libraries, museums and archives.

(3) In the cases referred to in par.2, items 1 and 2, the public sector organization shall calculate the total fees depending upon the categories and the amount of data provided for re-use according to objective, transparent and verifiable criteria to be laid down in a methodology adopted by the Council of Ministers. The total income of the public organization from supplying and allowing re-use of information over the appropriate accounting period shall not exceed the cost of collection, production, reproduction and dissemination, together with a reasonable return on investment calculated in line with the applicable to the organization accounting principles.

(4) In the cases referred to in par.2, items 3, the total income from supplying and allowing re-use of information over the appropriate accounting period shall not exceed the cost of collection, production, reproduction, dissemination and acquiring the rights for use of the information, together with a reasonable return on investment calculated in line with the applicable to the public organization accounting principles.

(5) The amount of the fees shall be determined as follows:

1. concerning the fees collected by a state body – by a tariff adopted by the Council of Ministers;

2. concerning the fees collected by another public sector organization – by the head of the organization;

3. concerning the fees collected by the municipalities – by the municipal council. These fees shall not exceed the fees under item 1.

(6) The amount of the fees, the calculation basis for those fees, the factors taken into account in the calculation of those fees, as well as all additional circumstances, if there are any, shall be published, including electronically when a respective Internet site exists. Upon request, shall also be indicated the way in which such fees have been calculated in relation to the specific re-use request.
(7) The sums of fees for re-use of information shall be added to the budget of the respective public sector organization.

(8) The Council of Ministers shall review every three years the methodology under par. 3 based on the report under art. 16a, par. 1.

(9) If the public sector organization does not determine the amounts of the fees under par. 5, item 2 and 3, the organization shall provide this information for re-use free of charge or after payment of a fee determined under the tariff under par. 5, item 1.

Time frames for granting access to public sector information

Art. 41h (New, SG No. 49/2007) (1) (Amended – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) The head of the public sector organization or an official appointed by him/her shall consider the request under art. 41e within 14 days of its submission and shall issue a decision for provision or refusal to provide information for re-use, which shall be notified to the applicant.

(2) In the cases, when the requested information is meaningful for a limited period of time, public sector organizations shall grant it in a reasonable time frame in which the information has not lost its relevance.

(3) In cases, when the request for re-use of public sector information is characterized by complexity and requires more time to be granted, the time limit under par. 1 may be extended to additional 14 days. In such a case, a notifying letter about the additional time needed for granting the information shall be sent to the applicant within 14 days of the submission of the request.

Refusal for granting access to public sector information for re-use

Art. 41i (New, SG No. 49/2007) (1) The refusal to grant access to public sector information for re-use shall be grounded.

(2) A refusal may be issued when:
1. a law prohibits the provision of the requested information;
2. the request does not meet the requirements under Art. 41f.

(3) (Amended – SG No. 97/2015, in force since 12.01.2016) The refusal under par. 1 shall contain the factual and legal grounds for the refusal, the date of the decision and the procedure for its appeal. When the refusal is grounded in art. 41b, par. 1, item 2 the public sector organization shall indicate the individual or legal entity which holds the rights, if it is known, or the individual or legal entity from which the public sector organization has received the information and the permission to use it. Libraries, including university libraries, museums and archives shall not be required to indicate these individuals or legal entities.

(4) The presence of personal data in public sector information which has been requested for re-use may not be ground for a refusal in the cases when that information constitutes or is part of a publicly accessible register.

Jurisdiction and appeal process

Art. 41j (New, SG No. 49/2007) Refusals to provide public sector information for re-use are subject to appeal before the administrative courts and before the Supreme Administrative Court, depending on the body which has issued the decision, under the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Code.
